BUILDING DETAILS

The strip of the Danforth between Greenwood to Coxwell has become a genuine hub of excellent restaurants, cafes, and QSRs along with many other businesses.

While the area has long been home to Ethiopian and Eritrean restaurants, the neighbourhood now also boasts some of the coolest restaurants in the East End of Toronto.

Property Details: This unit has seen many renovations over the years and the latest modifications going back to 2019 saw this commercial unit be transformed into a modern quick service restaurant with a ton of new equipment and leaseholds.

Great QSR layout that is ideal for many different concepts.
